Great Fete To Open St. Patrick's Day

Color Pops Through Buds On Famous Wistaria Vine—The Date Is Fixed

Color popped out of some buds on the great Wistaria vine here yesterday and the firemen definitely announced that the far famed Fete and festival of flowers will be ushered in with ceremony of beauty two weeks from today—St. Patrick's Day, March 17—and will continue until April 9.

All indications have it that there will be perfect spring weather to attract visitors throughout the fete, and the natural spectacle awaiting them will not be limited to the Wistaria grounds but will commence to unfold on every side as they enter the city. Streets and gardens will be in full and gorgeous bloom of peach and cherry, jasmine, aloe, and literally hundreds of varieties of semi-tropical plants. Hills will be green, and orange trees loaded with golden fruit, orchards set off by yellow mustard and alfalfa.

During the week, firemen workers have completed erection of the structure of the imposing entrance to the Fennel estate on Carter avenue, and it is planned to that the roof and add finishing touches Sunday. Potted palms will line the forecourt, and will be bent in archways in a picturesque manner. The former system of checking in visitors through a turnstile has been discarded in favor of the more hospitable and good looking wide gate.

In the meanwhile the applications continue to pour in from large florist shops and nurseries from the entire Southern California territory, and it becomes daily more apparent that the Court of Flowers will be a riot of color, and a fitting entrance-way to the Wistaria grounds proper.

Unemployed Call Bode And Myers To Counsel Table

City Business Manager Al S. Myers was elected Vice-President of the Advisory Board of the Unemployed Relief Association's San Gabriel Valley area yesterday afternoon, and Dean Arnold G. Bode was chosen as treasurer of the group.

Representing 22 valley and foothill towns and cities, including Pasadena, Monrovia, and Arcadia, the Board officials plan to meet in the Sierra Madre City Hall next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the first discussion of problems to be met and work to be accomplished in the immediate future.

Reciprocity Tea Will Bring Many Club Women Here

The Sierra Madre Woman's Club will entertain representatives from many clubs in the Los Angeles District at a Reciprocity Tea next Wednesday, March 8, at 2 p.m. The program will be given by Miss Elizabeth Morgridge, violinist and Miss Moreland Kortkamp, pianist. Both girls are daughters of club members and students at Pasadena Junior College. They will be assisted by a fellow student, Miss Marion Melzer, who will present a gypsy dance. Members may bring guests.

PEOPLE OF CITY ASKED TO CHOOSE BOY SCOUT LEADERS AT AN ELECTION ON MARCH 28

WITH the idea of enlisting the active interest and co-operation of the largest possible number of local citizens, the people of Sierra Madre will be asked to participate in a special election on March 28 at which a board of directors and officers to carry on the Boy Scout work here will be chosen.

Such a program was agreed upon at a lengthy meeting of scouting officers at the City Hall on Tuesday evening.

Two delegates from every interested organization, club and business in Sierra Madre, as well as all parents and citizens wishing to cast their ballots, will meet at that evening and choose the men who will carry on the scouting program here in the future.

Prior to the election the present elective officers will resign, and their appointive Board of Directors will be automatically dropped at the same time, thus giving a group of elected representatives opportunity either to choose a complete new set of officers or to re-elect the old ones. The scouting chairman now has the power to appoint the Board.

At present the officers are as follows: William Barry, chairman; Dean Arnold Bode, vice-chairman; R. O. Caukin, secretary; H. E. Allen, treasurer. The board members include, William Schwartz, civic service and publicity; Norman Jensen, personnel; Robert Newberry, camping; Vincent Fleming, court of honor; Dan Parker, reading and program director.

You Help Nourish Needy Children By Seeing This Show

Proceeds from the original full length film "The Covered Wagon" to be presented with a comedy and good music this evening at 7:30 in the Grammar School auditorium, will be used for the children's milk fund of the Parent-Teachers' Association. The P.T.A. has gone to considerable expense to rent this historical film and it is hoped there will be a large attendance. A matinee performance will be given at 3 o'clock this afternoon for the children.

People Calm As Holiday Proclaimed

Business Uninterrupted By Bank Closing; Minor Inconvenience

Sierra Madre accepted the bank holiday proclamation with scarcely the batting of an eye yesterday. Business went on here without interruption. There was no confusion or excitement when the townspeople read a notice posted on the doors of the local bank a few minutes before the scheduled opening time.

There had been no previous heavy withdrawals from the Sierra Madre Savings Bank and there was no alarm when the depositors and townsfolk generally read a notice signed by the bank directors, as follows:

The three-day bank holiday proclaimed by the Governor of California does not mean danger of loss to any depositor. It is for the protection of all depositors. The financial structure of our State is sound. There is no need to worry. The co-operation of our customers during this temporary inconvenience is appreciated.

W. S. Andrews, F. H. Hartman, W. S. Hull, Chas. S. Kersting, Jack Paschall, Chas. W. Yerxa, H. E. Allen, Directors.

The full clerical force of the bank had reported for duty and it was ready for the usual day's business when formal notice of Governor Rolph's proclamation arrived.

It is believed the period of the three-day holiday will pass without great inconvenience to anyone. Informal conferences were held among the tradesmen to this end as a result of which they will do their utmost to render the highest possible service under the circumstances.

City Business Manager Al S. Myers conferred with a number of the merchants and a plan was agreed upon looking to the furnishing of necessities to families of the unemployed who hold pay checks from the county that it will be impossible to have cashed until the bank holiday is over.

Under this arrangement merchants will accept the county checks in return for whatever is required, holding the check. When the person in whose name the check is drawn wishes to purchase from another merchant he has but to have the second merchant call the one with which the check is deposited and learn the amount of additional credit to be extended.

MINNIE KIMBALL DIES
Mrs. Minnie Kimball, for 29 years a Sierra Madre resident, died on Wednesday at her home in Los Angeles, where she took up her residence 7 years ago after leaving this city. Funeral services are to be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Brown's Funeral Chapel, on Flower street.

PEOPLE OF CITY ASKED TO CHOOSE BOY SCOUT LEADERS AT AN ELECTION ON MARCH 28

WITH the idea of enlisting the active interest and co-operation of the largest possible number of local citizens, the people of Sierra Madre will be asked to participate in a special election on March 28 at which a board of directors and officers to carry on the Boy Scout work here will be chosen.

Kiwanian Meetings Open To Business Men Of Community

Wilbur S. Tupper, of the faculty of Whittier College, will discuss "The Monroe Doctrine and its Relation to Spanish American Affairs," next Tuesday at the Kiwanis Club luncheon. Prof. Tupper, a lecturer on law and international relations, is formerly of the University of Wisconsin faculty. For many years he has been traveling and lecturing with connections which have given him most intimate knowledge of many lands.

All business men of the city interested in the speakers of the Kiwanis Club are extended a cordial invitation to attend at all times.

Minstrels To Perform For The Red Cross

"Black And White" Show By Local Talent To Be Presented On March 10

A minstrel show entitled "Black and White," presented in the interest of the Sierra Madre chapter of the Red Cross, will be staged in the public school auditorium next Friday night, March 10, by the John Ruskin Chapter of Daughters of the British Empire. Composed of black-face comedy numbers, chorus work, and "white face" skits and acts, the entertainment, in charge of Miss Lalla Fagg, promises to be a sure cure for the blues.

Marion Hayes, acting as inter-ocular, will introduce the local talent of the show, including Art Evans and Tom Henderson, as end men; C. C. Noshier, Francis Eakman, Sam Graham, Dan Parker, O. L. Cuddy, Mrs. M. A. Cuddy, Frank Lovell, Dean Archer, Miss Dacotah Carlyle, Mrs. F. L. C. Roess, Mrs. A. E. Pulling, Mrs. E. High, Mrs. E. Turner, and Ruth West, accompanist.

A skit, written by Jack Buchanan, will feature Mr. and Mrs. James N. Hawks, well known local character actors; Mrs. Janet Woods, soprano, and Dave and Jack Buchanan, Mrs. H. P. Bledsoe, dramatic songstress, will render songs of the gay nineties and Jack Young presents a special stunt cryptically called "Mysteries."

Music will be furnished by Don Blanke's orchestra. All chorus direction and drilling has been done by Richard Knost, prominent Sierra Madre musical director. Formerly associated with George Eastman's Rochester Civic orchestra and opera company, Mr. Knost's assistance in the minstrel show has proved invaluable, and insures the audience something unusual and professionally done.

Local Revue May Be Taken On The Road

Playing two nights to completely packed houses, the Junior League's musical revue "Hey Diddle Diddle" proved last Friday and Saturday to be the most successful and entertaining stage show ever to be presented before a Sierra Madre audience. Plans are now being formulated to take the production on the road, playing various of the nearby small towns.

Of most interest, next to the finished manner in which the entire show was staged, was the surprising amount of real local talent underneath. Bob Ward, a new arrival in town, displayed possibilities as a fine comedian as well as putting over Johnny Newmyer's chief song, "Incidentally Yours," sung by Miss Cricket Caukin and Sellwyn Myers. The piece seems destined to grow into a country-wide hit—if he manages to get it plugged properly by some widely heard radio orchestra and music publishing house.

James Kelleher, with much more opportunity to put over his natural comedy than he has been given heretofore, was responsible for the biggest share of the evening's laughs, especially in Paul Gerard Smith's "Yellow Peril," and in sundry patter interludes with Miss Caukin, the "master" of ceremonies.

Mary Davis, in an original number, "My Heart Ran Away with My Head," was heartily applauded for her blues singing. Nina Norris, one time Sid Grauman and Pantages' performer, played the accordion, and Ruth Klunk, stepping into a dramatic bit at the last moment, read her lines well.

Credit must be given to the entire cast, and especially to the chorus girls for their dancing. Miss Caukin, who staged and directed the dances, presented an original toe dance and sang pleasingly in addition to holding the entire performance together in fine rhythm and timing acting as master of ceremonies. Dick Sterns directed the book nicely. Ronny Rogers did as good as was possible with the hastily organized group of musicians. Lighting effects were smoothly worked out by Hammond Green, at the main switchboard, and by Bill Goff at the color spot.

Wesley Perry managed the curtain throughout the performance, and Bob Stamer proved capable as a stage-hand. Miss Sarah Jane Griebenow had the difficult job of stage manager, and efficiently took care of properties as well as called performers on stage.

The Junior League wishes to publicly thank the various businesses and townspeople who gave their cooperation and help in making the production such an outstanding success.

BEST FOR ALL

THERE IS NOTHING to get alarmed or excited about in the Governor's proclamation calling a bank holiday and Sierra Madre accepted the situation calmly—intelligently.

It was the reasonable, sensible thing to do not only in the interest of bank depositors, but of all the people. Had there been large withdrawals or runs on the banks of any communities the banks would ultimately have been obliged to sacrifice their bonds and securities from the earnings of which they are able to lend and carry on their business. They would have been in the same position as a business man who must sell at forced sale to meet his obligations. The result would have been a further destruction of values from which everyone would have suffered.

The bank holiday affords the people of an opportunity to think, the banks an opportunity to safeguard the interest of their depositors and the community against the timid, the unthinking and vicious who would destroy the very foundations of the Republic and glory in the chaos and distress that would follow.

There may be temporary inconveniences but they are insignificant in face of the safety that the procedure assures and they will be easily endured and quickly forgotten.

26th Anniversary Of Woman's Club Observed March 15

The Sierra Madre Woman's Club is planning a large birthday luncheon, celebrating the 26th anniversary of the founding of the club, for March 15, at the clubhouse. A special table will be provided for the charter members and it is hoped that all will be present. Every woman who has ever been a member of the club is urged to come and help celebrate. An especially attractive Lenten menu is being planned.

A unique arrangement of luncheon tables will be a feature. Luncheon will be served at 12:30, leaving ample time for an afternoon of bridge. Reservations should be made early with Mrs. C. H. Tuggle, 288-1. Many expect to renew past contacts and to enjoy a delightful afternoon. Mrs. William Lees, Mrs. J. M. Campbell, Mrs. Nestor Young and Mrs. E. E. Bacon will have charge of the luncheon.

Open Water Color Exhibition In The Little Art Gallery

Water colors of striking originality and strength were viewed by a large gathering of art lovers at the opening of the latest Little Gallery exhibit at the City Hall last night. The paintings are by Miss Margaret Griebenow, of Sierra Madre, Miss Ruth Ann Younglove and Bessie Ella Hazen, all members of the honorary art society of Delta Epsilon. The exhibit will continue to March 16.

Miss Younglove contributes an especially interesting and delicate picture, "Morning Glories," a desert study, and a Grand Canyon view of fine strength. Miss Hazen, who is an art teacher at the university in Los Angeles, has a painting entitled "Early Morning," an unusual depiction of a "Hopi Indian Village," and a gayly done one of Red Rock Canyon.

NEWS To Publish School Essays On "Iron-sides"

An excited and happy group of 265 Sierra Madre school children returned home last Friday evening, having seen with their own eyes and walked the decks of "Old Iron-sides," as she lay in her berth at San Pedro harbor.

Without a single mishap to mar the day, the children, accompanied by teachers and many parents, took the special trains that had been arranged to transport them directly to the docks, and they spent several hours inspecting the vessel and asking hundreds of questions.

There was an "Old Iron-sides" symposium at the grammar school yesterday at which the pupils gave impressions of their trip and the famous old frigate and the teachers gave them directed to write essays on the subject.

THE NEWS has arranged for the publication of the essays declared by the school officials to possess the greatest merit. Watch for them.

School Track Meet Finds Local Boys On Opposing Teams

Nosed out from first place by Elmer Stelle of Muir Tech, another Sierra Madre boy, Herbert Grammel of Jaysee, placed second in the shot put at the track meet held Wednesday between PJC and Muir Tech teams.

Grammel's mark of 39 feet 4 inches was raised 2 inches by Steele on the latter's last try. Both are Sierra Madreans.

Sam Schwartz took third in the pole vault and Carlton Scalzo copped second in the varsity shot put for PJC.

Location Of 4-H Club Here Planned Now

Chamber Of Commerce Lends Aid In Establishing Local Chapter

Accepting an invitation of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce to put on a demonstration of its work at the March 6 meeting here, the 4-H Club of Pasadena Woodrow Wilson school announced yesterday that the members would attempt to give a brief history of the club and a resume of the work being done.

The demonstrations arranged by the club will be designed primarily to interest the young people of this town in the club, and to arouse sufficient enthusiasm to permit the organization of a chapter here. The main purpose of the 4-H is the furthering of agricultural pursuits among youths, and many farm and vegetable products will be exhibited in Sierra Madre on the occasion of group's visit.

In a letter to J. S. Billheimer, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Frank E. Gibson, assistant leader of the youth's organization, invited the officers of the chamber and their wives to be present at a banquet being given tomorrow, Saturday, evening at 6:30 p.m. at Wilson school for the 4-H members and invited guests.

The personnel of the team that will come to this city includes Frank E. Gibson, Wesley Jones, Cathryn Nobles, Everett Gibson, and Esther Nobles. This same team is scheduled to take part in the National agricultural program broadcast from KFI at noon, Saturday, March 11.

Popular Lecture Course Begins At Episcopal Church

A course of free popular lectures is to be given on Monday evenings at 8 o'clock in the Parish House of the Church of the Ascension by Dean Bode. The first lecture will be on next Monday and the subject "The Evolution of Music" including how musical instruments were invented, how melody and harmony came to be, how one makes tunes, etc.

The second lecture, on March 13, will be on Australia—its history and government, humanitarianism and democracy. Dean Bode was formerly professor of music in the University of Wyoming and spent 27 years in Australia. His lectures have proved very popular among Lions, Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs, labor gatherings and colleges.

TRUCE SIGNED IN BATTLE BETWEEN PRODUCERS AND AUTHOR OF 'UNDRESS PARADE'

A THREATENED lawsuit between Henry C. Gordon, local playwright, and Paul M. Trebitsch, who is producing Gordon's "Undress Parade" at the Hollywood Music Box, was avoided after last night's performance of the piece when the author agreed to sanction the remaining performances on condition that the version presented tonight and hereafter shall conform in a more reasonable degree to Gordon's script.

Gordon was shocked on Sunday night when in the company of a party of fellow Sierra Madreans he witnessed the premiere production of his play before a packed house. It was not what he saw that jarred the playwright and brought crimson to his cheeks, but the lines and scenes that had been omitted. Some of these Gordon considered vital features to presentation of the play.

Author and producer are said to have had a lively tilt during the evening over the deletion of a scene showing a "strip" poker game from which the piece takes its name. Gordon contended this and other omissions left a play for which he could not be responsible and on Monday he issued a statement giving notice that he would apply for an injunction to prevent further production.

As the piece is being presented, said Gordon, "it is without my sanction or consent and my attorneys have been instructed to apply for an injunction to prevent further presentations."

"The play was written," Gordon added, "as a hilarious, bawdy comedy and was so tampered with and mutilated in the name of 'censorship' that I do not care to have the residue offered as my work. I am not a writer of Polynesian plays. In writing 'Undress Parade' it was my intention to offer the public a comedy of Rabelaisian flavor and attuned to adult taste. Overcaution on the part of the producers has operated decidedly to the detriment of my original intention. The public has the right, I believe, to something better than denatured drinks and denatured drama."

Attorneys have carried on negotiations between author and producer all week and at each performance more and more of the lines were spoken until last night an agreement was reached that hereafter the production will practically be the story that the author had in mind when it was written. Gordon has withheld the filing of an application for an injunction to see whether the agreement is kept.

Payroll Of Unemployed At High Mark

Public Projects Furnish Work For 128 Men With Prospects For More

A daily payroll peak of $414.10, distributed among 128 men, including practically every able bodied worker in the city, has so relieved the unemployment situation here that it is expected that business will experience a decided uptrend immediately.

The work now being done includes 75 jobs on the spreading grounds, 15 on the Big Santa Anita roadway, 30 in Bailey Canyon park, five on the removal of ghost trees, and three on the San Gabriel Canyon dam project. City Business Manager Al S. Myers states.

In the past month a total of 145 men have been turned over. This means that the employment situation has improved to such an extent that the approximate 100 men have been rotated one and one half times.

Prospects of still additional employment were foreseen as a result of a resolution adopted by the City Council at a meeting last Thursday in which a request was made that the county allocate $3600 for the purchase of materials with which to pipe the waters of the Little Santa Anita Canyon down to the city's spreading grounds. The ground work for this move was laid by City Business Manager Al S. Myers, who has contacted members of the Board of Supervisors, and found such a move feasible.

Not only would such a conduit line, extending from Sycamore Place to the settling basins, prove a boon to Sierra Madre, but it would also benefit the neighboring communities whose water supply is drawn from the same underground reservoirs as this city and is this aspect of the situation that caught the supervisors' interest.

Arcadia is already following in Sierra Madre's footsteps, proving the importance of the present water conservation plans, and is clearing the ground for basins to the southeast of here. It is that city's intention to provide means of conserving all the water that overflows from the local basins.

Business Men Long Under Single Roof Take New Quarters

After being located under the same roof for five years, Davis' Central Meat Market and Tom Solury's grocery store this week opened separate establishments. Charles Davis, who has for 16 years been in the meat business in the old Town Hall building, absorbed the business formerly owned by Austin Gibbs, and moved to Gibbs' store at 38 west Central avenue. Mr. Solury opened for business Wednesday morning in a spick and span store at Kersting court, near the bank.

In expanding his market Mr. Davis stresses that he is able to give the ultimate in value without sacrificing quality. The additional volume of business will result in lower prices, but he says, the market will continue to keep the very best and widest possible variety of meats in stock.

Although Solury's formal opening does not take place until a week from tomorrow, March 11, the grocery and vegetable departments are in full operation in the larger and more modern quarters. Complete new lines of quality goods, coupled with excellent service and equipment assure customers, both new and old, of the ultimate in service.

ILLITERACY DROPS

Only 26 out of every 1,000 persons in California are unable to read or write. This is one of the lowest illiteracy records of any state in the union. In Los Angeles county were found 32,365 illiterate persons, or approximately 1.7 per cent of the county's population.

WANT TO LIVE TO BE 100? TAKE THIS TIP

Want to live to be 100? Then hark to suggestions of the State board of health:

Breathe fresh air, day and night. Exercise your larger muscles daily. Regard over-fatigue as your enemy, and rest as your friend. Sleep at least 8 hours a day. Drink plenty of water at and between meals.

"Eat temperately, with plenty of vegetables and fruit. Avoid overweight. Make a thorough recovery from colds and sore throat. Think wholesome thoughts."

HERE'S RECIPE FOR "LEATHERNECK" SKIN

Don't lie around on the beach in these modern bathing suits, girls, if you want a beautiful complexion, because too much tan is worse than not enough.

At least, that's the advice of the State department of public health, whose director, Dr. Giles S. Porter, is an advocate of sun bathing—with discretion. "Constant exposure to the rays of the sun produce a sort of leathery effect to the skin," says Dr. Porter. "The term 'leatherneck' is frequently applied to skins of this type."

SUNNYSLOPE VOTERS ALL UP IN THE AIR

While assertedly 90 per cent of the residents of the Sunnyslope district, just South of Sierra Madre, oppose any change of their present status in county territory, it appeared evident this week that there will be an eventual dismissal of action to incorporate the district. Hearing on this question was postponed by the Board of Supervisors until March 27 inasmuch as the Appellate Court has not yet handed down a ruling on whether the Pasadena City Directors can be compelled to call an annexation election. Conflicting petitions, requesting both incorporation and annexation have been signed by Sunnyslope residents in the past months.

RARE COMBINATION AT ARCADIA THEATRE

The sparkling wit of Noel Coward, the beauty of Claudette Colbert, and the fine acting ability of Fredric March combine to make the motion picture, "Tonight is Ours," one of the best of the year. It is screened at Dean's Arcadia Theatre tonight and tomorrow, March 3 and 4, appearing on the double bill with Warden Lawe's sensational story of prison life, "20,000 Years in Sing Sing," which features Arthur Tracy and Betty Davis.

Warren William and Loretta Young come to the Arcadia showhouse Sunday and Monday in "Employee's Entrance," a film depicting the many problems that beset the every-day modern working girl. Also on the program is the comedy "Handle With Care," starring James Dunne, appealing hero of "Bad Girl," and Boots Mallory. A Magic Cartoon is also billed.

Tuesday and Wednesday, March 7 and 8, there is Kate Smith's first starring vehicle, "Hello Everybody," and "Man Against Woman," with Jack Holt. A comedy and the latest news reel are filmed too. Next Thursday Hemingway's great love story, "A Farewell to Arms," commences a three day run.

Orange Industry Adopts Agreement Like Lemon Growers

Adoption of an orange agreement, similar in general form and purpose to the Exchange lemon agreement, which is credited for much of the success of lemon marketing during the past seven years, was approved this week by the directors of the California Fruit Grower's Exchange, according to vice president W. E. Spott, who presided at the meeting.

The agreement and plan of operation was recommended by the special orange committee of Exchange directors. This committee is composed of E. A. Beck, Placentia; W. K. Beattie, Upland; C. H. Clock, Redlands; H. A. Lynn, Riverside; L. E. Lyon, Anaheim; C. E. Myers, Covina; R. E. Pitzer, Pomona; and W. E. Spott, Porterville, all of whom are experienced orange growers.

Identical but separate documents will be drawn up for Navel, including miscellaneous varieties, and for Valencia, and submitted to all orange associations and district exchanges affiliated with the California Fruit Growers Exchange. The percentage necessary to make the plan effective is 90 per cent for each variety. It permits annual withdrawal and does not affect existing contracts in any way other than delegating authority to determine volume of shipments to the central board.

Marriage, Divorce, Heart Balm All Hit In Assembly Bills

Among the more than 3000 bills that the Legislature began consideration of on Tuesday are more than 100 affecting marriages, divorce, the family relation and breach of promise. Among them are measures:

Prohibiting intermarriage of Filipinos and white persons in California.

Requiring plaintiff in "heart balm" suits to file a bond equal to 10 per cent of the damages sought.

Abolishing interlocutory decrees of divorce, requiring a one-year wait before the decree becomes final.

Reducing the time between granting the divorce and the final judgment from one year to three months.

Providing that alimony payments immediately stop upon the remarriage of the wife.

Giving babies born of a marriage that is annulled or dissolved by divorce, full legal standing as legitimate children.

Reducing from two years to six months the maximum penalty for failure to provide for a minor child.

Alarmed at the annual decrease in marriages in California, one lawmaker proposes to repeal the "gin marriage" act, which requires three days' notice of intention to wed.

INCLUDED in the numberless questions on diet, meat is an ever-popular one. How about protein?

For years we have been taught the tremendous importance of protein in our diet and have been led to believe that practically the only available protein is in the form of meatstuffs.

This is one of the reasons people are afraid to cut down on their meat consumption. Believing that by so doing, they will be robbing themselves of the essential protein.

In the first place, the commonly accepted idea that much protein is necessary for each meal is wrong, and also wrong is so far it is says that it must be animal protein.

Secondly it is possible to secure all the protein necessary for normal physical metabolism from wheat, cereals, beans, peas, nuts and dairy products, etc.

Assembly Bill Provides For Quick Wine And Beer And Booze Repeal

Every California county would have its own liquor commissioner to enforce State regulation in case light wines and beer are legalized by Congress, under a bill now before the California legislature.

The county liquor officer would be appointed by the board of supervisors, and his main duty would be to collect the annual license fee, to be written into the bill later.

Looking ahead to the possibility the Eighteenth amendment may be repealed, a companion measure sets up a State license tax commission to license manufacturers and distributors of alcoholic beverages. The commission would be appointed by the governor, and would have three members serving six-year terms.

License taxes provided under the measure are: restaurants and hotels serving beer with meals, $50 a year; wine with meals, $50; grocery stores and drug stores, selling beer in packages to be consumed elsewhere, $25; wine, $25; liquor stores, selling alcohol of higher content in original packages to be consumed elsewhere, $250; industrial alcohol permit, $50; medicinal alcohol permit, $50; wholesale liquor dealers, selling to trade only (except beer or wine), $100; wholesale beer and wine dealers, selling to trade only, $50; manufacturing winery permit, $10; manufacturing brewery permit, $10.

Another bill proposes outright repeal of the Jones still act, making possession or operation of a still a felony.

Local Sports Paragraphs

By John Copeland

GOOD news! The Sierra Night League goes into action April 21, and with a quota of 11 teams. Altho South Pasadena didn't show up at the district get-together in Arcadia the other night, there's not much question of the team staying in the league.

Still, there's nothing done about a hardball circuit.

We've heard of one-book novels, but never have we seen one-game basketball series... never before that is.

Herb (Sprinter) Munson has bought a stop-watch, thinking to polish up on his mail route speed.

Jimmy Wilkinson, A's race driver, had three or six stitches taken in his forehead Sunday as the result of a near serious accident. Another roadster threw a stone in his face. He got back from the hospital in time to take third in the main event—running with a broken axle, and under a double handicap.

Bob Chavis, once of these parts but now a metropolitan outsider, has been near the tennis courts some few times lately, and even was espied playing a bit. Sabe?

Now for the final stuff on the mens and boys divisions of the tennis robin: Hiro Kaya came out on top, winning 45 sets, dropping only one—that to Emile Smith. Second was Smith, while Fuller came in next. Lichno and Wes Perry trailed next. Bill Pyle was two games shy of being on a level with Perry.

From those figures we dope the outcome of the challenges something like this... Fuller should place top, if he's in form. Next Hiro, then Smith. Perry should take Lichno. Pyle may step up to fourth—even to third or better if he gets hot. But that remains to be seen.

In the boys' division Henry Neutzel is ace high, having won 26 sets and dropped two. Bill Hansen, Don Harvey, Johnny Kennedy, and Johnny Senour trail in that order. In the challenges Senour should jump up at least two notches, perhaps more. Otherwise the order seems fairly on the up and up at present.

Howard Miller's Irish terrier pup took the trophy in the novice class at the Pasadena dog show Saturday, and Tommy Miller's terrier placed second. Mike and Terry thus made their debuts in class company and were noses ahead at the finish. They look good to take ribbons in other classes when they grow up.

A News subscriber who read our story about the police-firemen's bowling match in Monrovia sends in the following:

Johnny Copeland wrote in his Sport Column what he heard from some of the participants of the recent bowling match between the Police and the Firemen but a lot of things evidently were not told him that were observed by an innocent bystander.

He was not told, for instance, that the police might have been drawing the fireboys on for another match, and that if the fireboys had lost, there would not have been another game. He was not told that Andy Liscombe could hit the end pin and get a strike, nor was he told that when Louie Karger swung back his arm to throw the ball, the pin boys would hunt the high places. He was not informed that Louie was so tired that he had to lean against a locker and a little boy came along and closed the door on his fingers. And if Johnny had heard the noise that Louie made at this innocent by-play of a little boy, he would have had some story. Tears roled down Louie's cheeks as he squinted with pain, and tears rolled down Jim Heasley's cheeks as he laughed at the faces Louie produced.

Yes, if Johnny had witnessed this very, very much ballyhooed game, he would have seen where the police were really the best bowlers, but they got the splits and not the breaks. Joe Swanson could throw a ball in the gutter and the blame thing would come back and make a strike. On the other hand the "H-H-Ps" were very steady all through the game. Once in awhile Harlan Gerlach would get his fingers caught in the hole of the ball, causing the ball to land half way down the alley, before starting to roll. It was to laugh.

EXCELLENT FILMS AT LYRIC THEATRE

Zasu Pitts, she of the fluttery and dramatic hands, makes her starring debut with Slim Summerville in "They Just Had to Get Married," at the Lyric Theatre tonight and Saturday. This comedy of the quite homely couple who inherit a fortune and turn a mansion into a liveable bungalow is said by critics to perfectly combine slapstick with sentiment. George Brent in "Luxury Liner," and Our Gang in another of their riotous films, "Free Wheeling" completes the bill.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, March 5, 6 and 7, Chic Sale and Bill Boyd appear in "Men of America." Ernest Truex, famed stage comedian is starred in "Whistling in the Dark," on the same program. In the latter film are Johnny Hines and Una Merkel.

The Lyric management wishes to announce the special 5-cent matinee tomorrow, Saturday, afternoon. At this time a new and thrilling serial, "Casey of the Mounted" commences. Episode No. 1 is full of excitement, and children and fun loving grownups as well will enjoy it. The picture is one of those approved by the P.T.A., as are all of the Saturday showings at the Lyric, and is presented in co-operation with the association.

STORY OF WOMEN IN PRISON AT THE TOWER

Barbara Stanwyck, recently elected the "First Lady of the Screen" in a fan poll conducted by the Chicago Tribune, is the star of a most unusual picture, "Ladies They Talk About," which opens at the Tower Theatre in Pasadena tomorrow.

It is a story of women in prison—of their lives, their thoughts, their hopes and loves—written by a woman who was sentenced to San Quentin prison and whose experiences while serving her time have been made into this movie, namely Miss Dorothy Mackaye, the actress.

A unique attachment that blossoms forth into a glowing romance is unfolded, involving the love of a stalwart young evangelist for the attractive young woman-bandit. Barbara Stanwyck plays the role of the bandit, a new type of character for her, while Preston S. Foster is her leading man, the evangelist.

Showing for the final times tonight is Mr. George Arliss in his latest triumph, "The King's Vacation."

Fire Flames

By one of the boys

WHILE the First Aid Crew, under the direction of Captain Swanson, was going thru' its drill, the remainder of the fire department was in another room practicing the use of the salvage sheets. These salvage sheets are a very heavy water-proof canvass and are used to throw over furniture, etc., in a house on fire. Already they have been used to a great advantage on many occasions. On first thought, one would think to throw a canvass over some furniture would be simple enough, but when we consider that the furniture must be placed in the center of the room, with the very highest pieces such as the floor lamps, in the middle, it should be realized that a trick of some sort must be used to avoid knocking over the whole pile.

Well, that was what the practice was for, and we must admit some of the boys were good. (Some of 'em). The noise made doing this stunt was the equivalent to two express trains coming 'round the mountain. Among the spectators was no other than Bill Lees, a member of the City Council and one of the fire committee. He did not express his opinion, but he must have liked it—he stayed for the lunch.

When the Chief finally succeeded in stopping the Southwest aggregation from their usual procedure at Friday's meeting he was able to get the regular meeting started, with many problems before the house, chiefly the Wistaria Fete. W. R. Humphries was present and reported progress. The Chief ordered all men on deck for next day off to report for the construction of the entrance to the Fete. Boss Carpenter Hibbs asked for volunteers to bring along their own tools. And on Sunday, a large number "turned out" and "turned in" a good day's work. Only four of the 20 were missing. (And somebody better help them if they can't produce a good excuse.) Despite that a few hit their fingers with a hammer, the carpenter boss was well satisfied with the day.

The Fire Department is very grateful to the folks who helped us entertain the San Gabriel Firemen's Association here last Wednesday. We are sorry that more of the firemen and their wives did not attend. This is due to the day being a holiday. (February 22) and very unusual for this organization always attends the meetings in large numbers, especially when held in Sierra Madre. The entertainment was especially good and will again boost our town. The visiting firemen will spread the news to those that missed it.

Ever since the Chief has started his garden, he is complaining of a rheumatic pain running up and down his back. Maybe he had better raise himself some horse radish.

Fire's Out.

COMMUNITY DANCES GETTING BIG HELP

Neighboring communities as well as Pasadena merchants associations, chamber of commerce, and various civic clubs and groups, have cooperated in making the weekly dances held at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium highly successful. Prices have been kept down to a minimum—25 cents per couple. This price includes the whole evening's entertainment. On both Friday and Saturday nights there are specialty dances and contests, and during intervals of the regular program the latest dance steps are demonstrated by experts.

Much effort has been put forth in making the entertainment attractive. Only the leading orchestras of the Southland are engaged. The auditorium opens both nights at 8:15 o'clock.

"LILLOM" STARTS TWO WEEKS ENGAGEMENT

Sylvia Sidney in "Lilloom," Franz Molnar's fantasy spectacle opened Tuesday evening at the Pasadena Community Playhouse for a two weeks' engagement.

A large number of motion picture players are presented in the cast headed by Arthur Lubin. Frank Reicher, actor and director of the original screen production, is guest director of the play.

TRANSPLANTING ANNUALS
In California transplanting of annual flowering plants is going on in the garden nearly every month of the year. In the Spring, however, there is the greatest variety of annuals to choose from. There are Verbenas, Lobelias, Asters, Larkspurs, Colendulas, Snapdragons, Pansies, kill a percentage of those moved. The beds or borders in which they are to be planted should first be spaded so that the ground will be loose and easily worked—a small quantity of screened manure can be mixed with the soil or some concentrated fertilizer sprinkled over the soil and mixed in. Extensive Use Of Scrip In Pasadena To Speed Business

A "barter" method of trade and commerce would be instituted in Pasadena by the adoption of the plan of incorporating the Universal Service Exchange for the purpose of promoting the use of scrip instead of money in that city. It is stated that organization men of the Exchange are already in the field signing contracts with farmers whereby they agree to accept scrip in payment for their produce.

Some professional, semi-professional and business men and independent grocers have said that they would cooperate with the plan. The Exchange itself plans to hire unemployed persons, who would be paid according to their labor, thus making the scrip, in effect, a promissory note, whereby the laborer promises his services.

Avoid Creation Of New Taxes

by RALPH H. TAYLOR
Sec. Agricultural Legislative Committee of California

AN OUTGROWTH of the legislative drive for rigid economy in State expenditures, brought about by depleted revenues and a bankrupt general fund, the "repeal acts" taken up by the Assembly this week, will require the most careful scrutiny to insure sound economy, through the elimination of non-essentials, without crippling services.

California farmers, recognizing the dilemma of the State government and anxious to avert the imposition of new taxes, must approach the problem unselfishly. Unnecessary services must go and clumsy duplication of services must be eliminated. On the other hand, the agricultural committees of the two houses must guard against foolish economies which might cost the farming industry and the State as a whole many millions of dollars through the breakdown of essential quarantine, standardization and inspection services.

Some of the "repeal acts" which will come up before committees for study and analysis include measures to repeal warehouse, apiary, cotton, and deciduous fruit dealer inspection service, and seed standardization inspection.

Another bill eliminates State support for the State Fair, requiring that it be discontinued or made self-supporting.

Still another act would repeal the Department of Agriculture's field crop inspection service.

In each instance, the fate of these services should rest on the question: "Is the service essential?"

Valor Award For Another Veteran Here

C. O. Welch Seventh Sierra Madron To Receive Medal Of The Purple Heart

Clarence O. Welch, 33 South Lima street, former corporal in the United States Marine Corps, received his award of the Purple Heart here Tuesday, thus bringing the number of Sierra Madre veterans so honored up to seven, an exceptional total for the small population. First established by George Washington as an award for bravery in the war of the revolution, the Purple Heart has been recently revived by the War Department as a means of recognition for those World War men wounded in action.

In recording Welch's citation, the Major General Commandant stated to the Adjutant General of the War Department: "The records of this office show that Corporal Welch was wounded in action October 8, 1918, and evacuated to the hospital. He was serving with the 95th Company, 6th Regiment, U. S. Marine Corps, and held the rank of Private when wounded. Welch was honorably discharged March 10, 1931."

In addition to the Heart, Welch received a Silver Star, an award for bravery. During the war he was the recipient of the Croix de Guerre.

Other Sierra Madre war veterans, in various branches of the service, who have received the Purple Heart, or are eligible for it are: Art Embree, Dan H. Lewis, R. V. Cromwell, Mayor H. Clay Reavis, Councilman Lester K. Layton, and Prosper Greivill.

DUSTING off the old Corona to give our faithful fellow-scribe, Norman Jensen, a well-earned relief.

Headed by Commander Calkin, a delegation composed of Comrades Jensen, Embree, Hill and Bell, visited the infant Altadena Post last week.

Plans are afoot for another of our potluck suppers in conjunction with the Auxiliary. It will be held about March 15th. Be on the lookout for definite date and details to be announced later, and plan to be there. You'll have a good time and will also help to replenish our depleted treasury.

Just another reminder of our forthcoming visit to San Fernando Hospital next Sunday. All who can do so are urged to come. Contributions of cigarettes, jam, books and magazines for the disabled comrades will be welcome.

Moundsman Pratt reports a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Eighteenth District night baseball league last Friday at Arcadia. Much of the discussion centered about the rules, and Pratt was appointed to the rules committee. There will be 10 or 11 teams this season, two or three of last year's contestants having dropped out. First game is scheduled for April 21st.

Together with other local service organizations, the Legion and Auxiliary were hosts last week to some three carloads of children of the local grammar school and St. Rita's school on a trip to "Old Ironsides" at San Pedro. Congratulations to Comrade Hapgood on the successful issue of his lawsuit. Say, George, lend us ten.

Some observations: Wave Pratt's attitude—Hey, big boy, throw me a match. Dan Lewis' elongated cigarette holder—the doctor advised him to "keep away" from the weed. Department headquarters announce this as the greatest air program ever introduced by a veterans or any other similar organization.

THE TATTLER

The Sierra Madre Tattler, who hears all and tells most of it, makes a debut with the query: What teacher at the grammar school is going to show a diamond most any day now, and who is the groom-to-be?

Speaking of schools, there's the large St. Bernard dog, whose name is literally Mud, who entered into the life of the community again this week when he invaded the sixth grade classroom. Creating much furor and with muddy feet in addition, he clambered over chairs, tables and whatnot until at last teachers managed to coax him back into the sunlight. So he ambled off with all the grace of a small oxen, and showing little signs of his experience within educational walls. His chief claim to fame lies in the fact that he is owned by the Herbert Hoover Juniors.

John Kelleher reads true detective stories... while Bill McDougall's daughter, Irene, does on Snappy Romances... Jack Butler goes in for Aldous Huxley when Huxley goes in for the right things... Louis Fuller thinks certain Italian operas flowery, yet likes Don Blandin's poetry... Vic Mitchell actually turns out a cartoon now and then that has elements of clever political satire in it...

Everything's all right now. Henry Gregor promises to take the Xmas decorations out of his window this week.

A gent with pearl-grey spats and a nicely done moustache did the musical arrangements for a local show, and one Miss will get as sore as anything if you suggest that he would like to sing under her balcony.

A ha! A Jekyll and Hyde right in our very midst. We have it on excellent authority that the head of a well-known country taxi concern is a good deal of a city slicker, after all. The dope comes from Charlie Fedor, who tells that he and Sam took in a Pasadena burlesque show last week. And the payoff comes in the name of the show: "Greater Love."

Not even the black mask could do the trick. Everybody knew that the lady palmist at the D.U.V.C.W. tea was Mrs. J. W. Tyree.

You don't need a Tattler to tip you off that it's Spring, do you? Many villagers have tied cans to their autos, and walked to work these last perfect morns. Ira Fox, for instance, who has already gotten his season's attack of wanderlust, and longs for the wide open road and a tent over on the desert. You, sir, didn't we see you walking briskly down a street, sniffing enthusiastically of the peach blossoms and the jasmine? And you, sir, over there, got quite light headed over the sight of young Sierra Madre richly gowned in green and gold and lavender... don't deny it.

Henry Gordon put on his spicy "Undress Parade" at the Hollywood Music Box last Sunday, and if the Angel city's vice squad hasn't done something about it by the time this goes to press the play's still there. Critics stuck up their noses at it, but as the gent who sat in back of us the other night remarked between acts: "I had a hard time not laughing at that crack, Bill, but I was afraid the missus would trample me if I did."

Mrs. Vera Stewart's third set of wedding bells are due to ring in May, you know.

Roy Shetler always wondered how they got so many sardines in such small tins, so Sunday he took Mrs. Shetler and the kids and drove down to San Pedro to find out. They had a varying day. A hundred thousand people stood ahead of them near the "Constitution" gangplank, so after they'd visited Fisherman's pier and looked into the mysteries of sardine canning, they pecked in on the Wandervells' yacht, then scrambled back to these hills.

Alex McLaren, scenarist and writer, was the one who put the Irishman, Walsh, on the pages of the Satevepost lately. The two met in Dublin some time ago, and McLaren was impressed by the young man's grace and beauty in writing.

Lee Shippey has received hundreds of call-downs on his mistake in having "The Fountain" authored by Miss Stern instead of Mr. Morgan. Here's hoping that the Tattler isn't balled up on it, too.

At whose luncheon did whose girl friend bring crimson to the ears of whom by gargling the alphabet soup? She got one letter stuck, sounding her A, and perhaps in desperation her boyfriend took up dramatics, and is at present covering his embarrassment with greaspaint.

Tom Neale, the marrying judge, garnered in quite a hefty fee for a splice he pulled off in a valley hamlet Tuesday. En fact he could have bought a second hand auto or put the down payment on one of those little grey cottages with that much cash. But you know Tom. He went fishing the next day instead. And probably is broke again now after buying a fine string of mackerel at a roadside fishmarket on the way back home.

Kiwanians Of Big Area Coming Here

Representatives Of Many Clubs Will Attend Tenth
District Meeting

The next Gabriel Valley district meeting of the Kiwanis Clubs will be held in Sierra Madre it was announced at the Tuesday noon luncheon this week. This event, occurring sometime in May, will call together a large group of prominent Kiwanians from all of the tenth district clubs, and it is planned that an elaborate program be prepared.

Bob Avery, charter member of the Fresno Kiwanis club and now employment director of the Los Angeles county probation department, was guest speaker at the local club's luncheon Tuesday, discussing the difference between probation and parole. He gave those present an excellent picture of the merits of the probation system.

"Nothing helps a man like putting him to work on a job where he can work out his own salvation," Avery said in commenting on the rehabilitation of men. Himself in charge of 480 men now on probation he is in close touch with the subject.

Harold Roberts was made a Kiwanian during the meeting. Dr. Jack Woehler reported on a meeting of the Board of Directors at which there was discussion looking to representation of the local club by delegates to the International Convention in Los Angeles this summer.

WOMAN'S SOCIETY WILL SEW TUESDAY MORNING

The Woman's Society of the Congregational Church will meet to sew next Tuesday, March 7, in the parlors of the church at 10 a.m. Each one is asked to bring sandwiches. Tea and coffee will be served at noon. A short business session will be held at 2 p.m. followed by a social afternoon. Members will bring in earned talents and will tell how they earned them.

A guessing contest will be held at the School Auditorium next Friday night, 20 black face folk—males and females—twenty guesses with every 30 cent ticket. You'll be surprised—come early and guess often. For the Red Cross.

GLENDALE PLAYERS WIN CONTEST AGAIN

For the second consecutive year the Glendale Little Theatre of the Verdugo Hills carried away first honors in the Los Angeles County Drama Association's one-act play contest that was held in Beverly Hills this week, and won the Mildred Davis Lloyd cup and 50 dollars. In addition to this the players' group gained the distinction of having the best woman performer of the tournament, Miss Kathryn Herndon, who played the lead in Philip Johnson's "Out She Goes." Sierra Madre was not a contender.

Special Services Are Arranged Here For Lenten Season

The Lenten season opened here on Ash Wednesday, and coincidentally March came in like a lamb, thus giving the proverbial hint of later inclemency.

Catholic services both at the Passionists Monastery on Monte Oliva and at St. Rita's Shrine will be held during the forty day devotional period. Sunday the new public Chapel at the monastery opens with the opening services conducted by Rev. Father Isadore Dwyer, who will put into words the gold lettered inscription on the chapel walls, "May the Passion of Jesus Christ be always in our hearts." Father Isadore will also conduct the first of the afternoon services to be held during the Lenten season. Father Angelo and Father Sylvester will also deliver sermons at later dates.

At St. Rita's the schedule of Lenten services is as follows: Masses on Sundays will be at 6:30 and 10:30 a.m. Weekday Masses will take place at 7 and 8:15 in the morning. Special devotions consisting of sermon and benediction, every Tuesday evening at 7:45 p.m. On Fridays, Stations of the Cross for the children will be held at 3:15, and for adults at 7:45 p.m. Sunday, March 5, will be communion day for the women of the Parish and Altar Society.

Thomas H. Hearn, classmate of Knute Rockne at Notre Dame, and an active worker in circles of higher education in Southern California, will deliver an address at the breakfast following the Holy Name Society's communion and 7:30 o'clock Mass Sunday morning, March 12.

FOOD SALE PROVIDES HOLIDAY FOR SIERRA MADRE HOUSEWIVES

Saturday evening's meal need not be a jinx to the housewives this week for the whole family will enjoy the staple and fancy dishes to be sold by the Sierra Madre Woman's Club at Solury's old store, Baldwin and Central avenue, all day Saturday. Mrs. Woodson F. Jones is in charge of the food sale and all special dishes may be secured by telephoning her. Dainties for the Sunday dinner will please the family. Donations of food are to be telephoned to Mrs. Jones.

VALLEY CLUB HEARS MISS STARK AGAIN

The concert performance of "Mignon" which will be given at the meeting of the San Gabriel Valley Opera Reading Club on Friday, March 10 at 10 a.m. in the auditorium of the Monrovia Woman's Club is anticipated as one of the outstanding events of the club season.

The descriptive continuity will be given by Frederick Vance Evans. The title role will be sung by Eleanor Rennei, contralto, ranking artist of the Pacific Coast. Georgia Stark, coloratura soprano, will have the part of Filina. This will mark Miss Starks fourth appearance before the club.

LITTLE PLAY GIVEN BY A.L.A. MAKES BIG HIT

By Minnie Stinman
Those who were so fortunate as to be present at the last meeting of the A.L.A. were very much pleased and entertained by the clever little play, "A Tea for Washington," written and directed by Dorothy Shetler, and presented by a well-chosen cast. Each character was faithfully portrayed. Everyone was splendid. It was indeed a rare treat, and the author and all those who assisted in making the play a success, have earned a note of thanks from their audience.

Thirty cents and a smile will admit you to the Black & White Minstrel & Vaudeville show at the School Auditorium next Friday the 10th. The fun will start at 8:15 p.m. Many old and new faces will be seen. 30 people in the company—funmakers, singers, dancers, players—It's for the Red Cross—so come!

Local Masons Hold New Deal Dance In Pasadena Tonight

The "New Deal" dance to be given tonight by the Sierra Madre Masonic lodge in the Pasadena Scottish Rite Cathedral, 150 North Madison avenue, will feature the fine dance music of Ken Becker's "Hollywood Sweethearts," an aggregation of girl musicians and specialty artists. Tickets may still be obtained from lodge members, or may be purchased at the door of the hall. A full evening of good entertainment and dancing is promised. Many Sierra Madreams have already secured tickets, and a large local turnout is assured.

A. L. A. Activities

By Dorothy Shetler

NEXT Sunday, March 5, is Hospital Day at San Fernando for the local Post and Unit. There is still time to gather up any books and current magazines to be distributed among the patients. Phone Mrs. Arthur Evans for particulars. Those who cannot go out, but want to send candy, cigarettes, etc., can do so by phoning Mrs. Evans in time for her to call for same.

Perhaps there are some that want to go out; but have small children. The A.L.A. pays a woman to stay in the nursery to care for the small kiddies. There is always a regular nurse in attendance. So your children will be well cared for.

The Juniors are busy completing their scrapbooks to be given to the nursery at the Hospital. The girls can always make use of any colored magazine pictures for this branch of work.

March is Community Service Month in all Auxiliaries. Sierra Madre is fortunate in having a very able Community Service Chairman in Leila Embree. She is also Chairman of this department in the 18th District. So we have an edge on the other units, in knowing what's what right away quick.

Americanism Chairman Augusta Coats made her month, February, very interesting, arranging two excellent programs for the Americanism meetings. March meetings will be under the

Yellowstone Park Beauties Brought To Audience Here

By Wilbur Clayton

A trip through Yellowstone National Park by way of a movie camera is to be presented in the social hall of the Congregational Church Friday evening, March 24. This film was taken by an amateur photographer while vacationing in Yellowstone and includes some very beautiful views of the park and the outstanding points of interest in that vicinity.

Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard who has also visited Yellowstone will give an interesting talk during the showing of the picture and will bring out the high lights of the trip, adding color that the eye of the camera fails to bring out. This entertainment is being sponsored by the Young People's Society of the Congregational Church and the public is invited to attend. No admission will be charged but a silver offering will be taken to help boost the Society's treasury.

direction of Leila Embree. Everyone is enthusiastic about the different chairmen taking the meeting each month. The semi-monthly meetings by that method are always a grand surprise party. For some reason—and shall we give the credit to this new plan—the A.L.A. is having fine turn outs.

Ellen Evans and Maybelle Barker baked the cookies, we were asked to supply for the Past President's Parley Tea held at the home of Gertrude Powell, in Glendora. The money raised is to be used for the disabled nurses. You hear lots about the disabled vets, but not so often about the nurses. The Past Presidents have taken upon themselves to make the life of the sick nurses more comfortable and cheery.

Plans are being discussed for another Pot-Luck supper to be held about the middle of March. So far the undertaking is going to be both a Legion and Auxiliary activity. The soldiers and the girls met Wednesday, to talk the supper over. More about this anon. Part of the plans are up to the A.L.A. girls whose birthdays are in March and April.

There was a big turnout for the A.L.A. meeting last Thursday. Out-of-town guests were: Judge Joseph Sproul, of Los Angeles; Myrna Wynkoop, 18th District convention chairman; Laura Smithson, 18th District President; Ellen Norris, 1st Vice President of this District, and Evelyn Ault, Americanism Chairman of the District.

Each guest spoke, all commending Sierra Madre Unit for its good work and pep. Judge Sproul gave an invitation to the Auxiliary to attend the patriotic program under the auspices of the Elks on March 29. Judge Sproul is Captain of the U. S. Marine Corp Reserve, and Vice-President and Director of the Army and Navy Club. We were all quite thrilled to hear so prominent a speaker. Mrs. Smithson, as usual, gave a most interesting speech.

President Barker declared a recess after some of the reports were given, turning over the meeting to Augusta Coats. Miss Lucile Sparks gave a most interesting talk on the songs of America. Edith Woodruff then accompanied and sang with Ellen Evans, Lucile Sparks, Ora Olsen and Florence Wilhelm—the tune Yankee Doodle. And they sure did sing it with the proper vim.

Mrs. Coats told some of the humorous high lights of her trip overseas, during the War as Red Cross Nurse, and we all got a big kick out of them.

About this time the actresses left to don their antique costumes, and prepare for their little play that was to be given after the meeting adjourned. In the cast were Augusta Coats, taking the part of Nurse Brown, Lena High, as Mrs. Jones, superintendent of the Home; Annie, a quarrelsome Dutchwoman was acted (and how!) by Bertha Irvine. Elizabeth Goodier as Maggie, was a fine squeaky old woman. And you had just "order" have seen Agnes Tyree as Katie, the Irish ex-washwoman. Mrs. Mayor Reacompanied and sang with Ellen Florence Jensen as Laura was a perfect picture from out of some old time magazine.

Leila Embree had the part of Flora, the perpetual flapper, that was also a mental case. Gee, gosh, was she a flapper, even a modern flapper has nothing on her. Your "collumyist" took the part of the other nit-wit, Jennie. Modesty forbids my telling you the height of perfection she attained.

The show was all about "A Tea Party for Mr. Washington." And how it was prepared by the women of the deaf ward, inmates of the Charity Home for Mental and Indigent Cases.

All we can say about the skit without sounding like too much bragging—is that the Legion boys want to let them see the play. Also Mrs. Smithson asked us to put it on for a big meeting in Pasadena. Ahem!
